

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1895.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" free any more than a merchant can give his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a business enterprise. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEADER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers.

Seasoned, fair, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and where the advertiser, regardless of the amount, does not exceed ten lines, will be charged at the rate of one line for the first insertion, and one-half for each subsequent insertion. This, however, will be the variable rate. This, however, will be the variable rate.

Don't You Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which should not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Letters in THE LEADER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a definite local insertion in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—30 times—costs him $15.50. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy. Followed probably by an angry feeling. Now to obviate this trouble, THE LEADER will accept no definite agreement at the advertiser and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

Many a man who has been sent to an early and even suicidal grave by the tortures of dyspepsia, would be alive and well to-day, had he tested the virtues of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is no temporary appetizer, but a radical, scientific remedy. It makes life worth living.

Dress! Dress! Dress!

Dress! Dress! Dress!

Idol and fetish supreme

Of the female part of the human race.

Woman's diurnal dream.

Woman's natural theme.

That can cause her eyes to beam

With an utterly joyous gleam.

As Disipline.

Roulette.

Criticizing.

Analyzing.

She harps with a fervor, eager stress

On dress! dress! dress!

Dress! dress! dress!

Bane of the poor male worm.

Who in ravings about it must acquiesce

For a seemingly endless term.

While the ladies compel the germ

Of madness to start and squirm.

In a brain that was shrewd and firm.

It is estimated that the cost of the railroad from Brookville to Wellburg will amount to $6,000 per mile to put it in operation.

Traxel & Smith are selling half-horse hoes, that they guarantee for two years, at 18 cents per foot. No. 129 West Second street.

James P. Ewing, a wealthy ex-merchant at Bowling Green, talked too much and got himself sued for $5,000 for slander. He is accused of having said all Irish will steal.

About sixty acres of tomatoes were contracted by the Dover Cannery Co. this year, but on account of the scarcity of plants only about half that many acres have been set out, and should it prove reasonable they will have as large an output as they had last year.

The Ripley Bee says that Samuel Yeaton will soon have a deed from the Government for what is known as Charleston Bar, which is located about 23 miles above Ripley. Mr. Yeaton was a soldier during the late war, and as such is entitled to a quarter section of land. He wrote to the authorities at Washington, asking them to allow him this bar as his claim. They informed him that they would and he has plowed up and planted it in corn and expects to reap a rich harvest.

Are you sure of this? If you will investigate, you will probably find out that Kentucky owns this bar.—Ed. LEADER.

James Davis of Fleming shipped a carload of stock Saturday to New Mexico. It consisted of three jacks, three bulls, three cows and calves and sixteen cows. The cattle were Jerseys and short-horns, and the jacks all high bred.

LET EVERYBODY GO OUT.

Today Witnesses the Baseball Event of the Season.

This afternoon our boys tackle the great Cincinnati Reds.

The game has been well advertised, and promises to be patronized largely.

The Reds will be made up of the regular team, and the Locals will be at their best.

Big Bill Phillips will pitch for the Reds, while Morgan Murphy, the best catcher that ever looked through a mask, will be behind the bat.

If Laytham is in a good humor this afternoon he will create no end of merriment for the crowd by his witty sayings and comical actions.

Maugh will be on first, Smith at short, McPhee at second, with Miller, Hoy and Hogreiver in the outfield.

You can't afford to miss it.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock, and the admission is 50 cents, ladies 35 cents.

A "fan" has placed $10 in the hands of a responsible gentleman, which he offers to the member of the Local team making the most safe hits in the game this afternoon.

HARMONY SOME MORE!

MORE PICKUPS FOR OUR NEIGHBOR FOLKS.

It was a heartily harmonious Mob-What Will the Harvest Be?—Keep Your Ears Open.

Some of the Mason county contingent have returned from Louisville, bringing voices keyed up to the foghorn pitch and wearing blue smiles that reach behind the ears.

All agree that the Convention was Democratic to the core—from the act of the Honorable and able Chairman Al Brady drinking a glass of whiskey while presiding on the stage, to the visit of a certain chap who proposed to buy the Mason delegation for his man.

But this was all in the interest of harmony.

When it came to the nomination for State Treasurer, John C. Herndon, formerly of this county, got 172 votes on the first ballot but only 41 on the second, and R. C. Ford of Clay county was chosen.

In the interest of harmony there was no opposition to L. C. Norman for Auditor.

G. B. Swango of Wolfe county was nominated for Register, A. P. McCoy of Greenup getting only 109 votes.

In the interest of harmony Hon. W. J. Hendrick of Fleming was renominated for Attorney General without opposition.

The Convention now tapped a fresh jug of harmony, and Mr. C. Bugfuge Taylor of this city rode right close up to H. S. Hale for Secretary of State. It is not morally certain which has been nominated, but if Mr. Taylor doesn't "git" that he ain't the man we think he is.

Hanson Kennedy of Nicholas is the new member of the State Central Committee from this District.

And James N. Kehoe of this city is the new member of the State Executive Committee for this District.

And two years hence Hon. Charles B. Foynt will have a whole hirc of Congressional bees in his spring bonnet.

Put that down in your little book, and paste this right under it.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 27th.

The A. P. A. are here up in arms and declare they will not support the Democratic ticket. They say the Democratic Convention at Louisville went out of the way to criticize their organization, and that the 1,000 members of the Association here and 30,000 in the state will vote the Republican ticket.

Wheat in the last ten days has declined about 15 cents on the bushel, but who has heard of any decline in the price of flour?

Judge W. P. Ross of Carlisle has a store about clear now, and has been giving about two gallons of milk per day.

The Methodist Church Trustees of Millersburg have accepted a plan for a $10,000 Church, and will commence building this summer.

Dr. G. M. Williams of this city read an interesting paper before the State Dental Association at Lexington on "Our Mistake in Mechanical Dentistry."

Mrs. Kate Wright, aged 74 years, whose home was near Owingsville, died from lockjaw, supposed to have been the result of having stuck a rusty nail in one of her feet a short time since.

The Ashland News says: "Huntington will revive football under the coaching of Truchard Taylor. They ought to put up a good article up that way, as they are the greatest kickers on earth."

William Orton, one of the murderers of peddler Loh and wife in Harlan county, who was shot while trying to escape from the jailer's posse, has died of his wound. The two others implicated have been captured and are in jail.

The Rev. W. E. Broadhurst, Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Arkansas City, Kans., has resigned his Pastorate, confessing that after resisting temptation for twenty-one years he has fallen. There is a woman involved.

Miss Annie Londonderry of Boston, who is riding around the world on a bicycle, decided to waive of $20,000 to $10,000, arrived at El Paso, Texas, Wednesday.

She has been on her journey a few days over a year, and in that time has declined over 150 offers of marriage.

The Case family of this county are yet counting on getting a slice of that fortune at Cleveland, O. They have representatives there now who are looking out for their interests in the case. Should their expectations be realized it will put the whole connection in what we may term a nice case.

PIPES ON A BUST.

An Accident That Might Have Been Much Worse.

Yesterday there was a collapse at the Ice Factory and Cold Storage plant of Acker & Frederick on the Fleming pike.

The pipes used in condensing water burst, and as a result there will be considerable loss, probably as much as $100.

Besides there will be a delay of several days.

However, the accident will in no wise interfere with the prompt delivery of ice to customers, as the firm had a good stock on hand.

DROGGED BY A FISH.

Greenup Boys Have a Narrow Escape, and One Is Badly Hurt.

While James and Samuel Hare, sons of Basil Hare, a prominent farmer in the Greenup neighborhood, were fishing in Schultz creek, Samuel, the younger, fell asleep, and while in this condition a large fish caught hold of his hook, pulling him into the creek.

The younger brother ran to his assistance and jumped into the stream, but both of the boys were unable to land the fish and were carried over the falls in the creek, almost a quarter of a mile below where they were fishing.

The younger boy was badly bruised and will not likely recover.

A man working in a field close by heard the screams of the boys as they went over the falls, and had he not rescued them they would both have been drowned.

TACKETT ATTEMPTS ESCAPE.

And He Has Altered a Confession. So He Is Said.

James Tackett, under arrest at Vanceburg for the murder of the Browns, attempted to escape from Jail Monday with two Negroes, arrested a few months ago for the murder of a Hudson deckhand, and a man named Roberts, in for burglary.

Roberts led off by knocking down a son of the jailer as he passed through the prison.

All four of the men would have escaped but for a prisoner to be released that they gave the alarm and prevented their getting outside the building.

Tackett, it is stated, confessed to having been at the mouth of the creek on the day of the crime.

It will be remembered that there was much confusion as to his real whereabouts that day, witnesses wholly disinterested having sworn that he was and was not at Kinlochicks.

This is removed effectually by Tackett's statement, but what effect it will later have on his case remains to be seen.

There is no new evidence in the case.

Mr. S. M. Worthington has sold out his business at Bowling Green and will return with his family to his former home in this county.

Dan Rice, the veteran showman who married the widow of Robert Greenhouse of Texas, a former citizen of this county, by whom he came into control of a large plantation, directs the management of his place from his home in New York. Dan is well known all over Texas.

The management of the coming running races—July 4th, 5th and 6th—will not ask our merchants for a dollar in the way of donations. All they do request, and that most respectfully, is that all the stores be closed on the Fourth, in order that everybody can attend the sport.

Fredericksburg, Va., being one of the places spoken of as the place for the meeting of the next General Assembly at the recent session of that body at Dallas, the spokesman of that town on being interrupted with the remark that his town could not entertain so large a body, called attention to the fact that upon one occasion his town had entertained General Burnside and 200,000 Northern visitors and sent them away "gravely impressed."

But seems to be the condition of the "Wets" and "Drys" in poor old Hartford, the county seat of a Prohibition county. An election was held in January, in which the "Drys" won, and was set aside by the Circuit Court and then went to the Court of Appeals, where it now is, and another election was held June 17th, in which the "Wets" won. Now the "Drys" will contest the election, claiming that ten illegal votes were cast in the last election which might very materially change the vote, and other frauds and illegal practices will be charged in the petition.

Didn't Invest.

It is a nice thing to be told that a fortune is awaiting a family when one happens to be a member of the same. A correspondent of THE LEADER was, has never yet realized on it.

Sir Francis Drake was the hero of the story, and the Drake family of this county were to be the beneficiaries.

Twenty millions sterling were said to be locked up in the rusty vaults of the Bank of England, waiting to be taken possession of by this hungry family of Drakes.

The lawyers tried hard to get up such an excitement as would cause the claimant to invest in the case, but the deal fell still born.

Richmond Convention.

The Democratic Convention assembled and organized in Louisville June 18th, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Railroad Commissioner of the Third District of Kentucky, having adjourned on the 6th inst. to meet in Richmond, Ky., July 18th, 1895, without naming the hour for reassembling.

I therefore, in order to give all the delegates an opportunity to reach Richmond by train on that day, and trusting that the same will meet with general approval, announce that the Convention will be called to order for the purpose of completing its work at the hour of 3 o'clock p. m., July 18th, 1895, at such place as shall be designated by the local committee, which I am not at present advised.

V. BORKING, Chairman Convention.

EXTENDED FREIGHT SERVICE.

The C. and O. Soon to Have Through Trains to Louisville.

Ashland News.

The C. and O. Road is gradually reaching out and perfecting its system, and the next move of importance will be the extension of their freight service direct into Louisville. Trains will go on through that city manned with C. and O. crews, just the same as do the passenger trains. The run will be made over the L. and N. tracks now in use by the passenger service, and which are to be considerably decreased in distance by the building of a new shortcut line over the lower end of the route, removing a fifteen mile run.

With the addition of this new service there will be a call for additional crews and if the runs are laid out as is the general opinion now that they will be, it will give local men better opportunities than have ever heretofore been enjoyed.

The local train men will well placed with the new arrangement, and all along the line the move is generally regarded as a wise one. If it doesn't come July 1st, it will not be long delayed.

TO MAKE BLOOMERS UNLAWFUL.

Request of the Y. M. C. A. of San Francisco.

The Young Men's Christian Association of San Francisco has sent the following petition to the City Board of Supervisors: "We the undersigned citizens of the city and county, pray to the honorable Board of Supervisors to enact and enforce that it be unlawful for ladies to wear bloomers or knickerbockers, or any attire unbecoming the fair sex. We consider the above wearing apparel—and we believe all good Christians will uphold us in our moral—a perpetual menace to the good morals of the city. We have consulted eminent physicians and they all agree that it is unhealthy for ladies to ride bicycles. Furthermore, we have great compassion for the fair sex. Hoping our prayer will be received and special attention be given by your honorable body," etc.

ONE OF UNCLE SAM'S FINEST.

A Postoffice in Eastern Kentucky That Is a Babel.

Postoffice Inspector George M. Fleming has returned from a six weeks' trip among the mountaineers of Eastern Kentucky with a big store of interesting recollections.

Hotels of the Postoffice East, Ky., on Crook Creek, which is probably without a parallel anywhere.

It is in a store where the only merchandise sold is guns, locks, coffin screws, tomahawks, and road map criticisms, the latter with a blank space for the names of the deceased. The Postmaster, he says, carries on a thriving business in these commodities.

Inspector Fleming says that the region is one of the richest coal districts in the country, but the resources have never been tapped.

The reason for this is that there are no railroad facilities and no other means of shipping the coal when mined.

Owners of the land realize, however, that they have a very good chance of some day becoming wealthy, and the property is, consequently, held at a high figure, which will necessarily be advanced even higher as soon as the country, parts of which, it is said, have never been explored, is opened up to commerce.

Dr. P. G. Smart can be found at night at residence of John N. Thomas, Third st.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would involve the country in financial ruin. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for currency, provided always that a dollar in coin is made precisely as valuable as a dollar in the other.

We favor a tariff as regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring work for the laborer and a home market for the producer; and in connection with this we favor the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity. We believe that such a system will develop our resources, gradually liquidate all our indebtedness, reduce public confidence and relieve to the rear the undue excitement now prevailing in the currency. In view of the present state of the currency, we favor the passage of the bill for the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity.

The Democratic party, its state bank system and wildcat currency, have done much to injure the Republic and to injure the people. We favor the passage of the bill for the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity.

Our American policy will give peace and American interests in any and all hazards and will summing up the results of the war.

Republicans in Washington City there will be a split in Kentucky which will elect Bradley and a League legislator. The result in Kentucky is looked upon both by Republicans and Democrats as the death blow to the present free silver agitation throughout the country, and most of them rejoice accordingly.

GENERAL GRANT had wonderful foresight. On his return from a trip around the world he predicted that with the construction of the Nicaragua Canal Japan and China would furnish a ready market for from 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 bales of Southern cotton. Ex-Governor HERRARD of Texas, who was Minister to Japan, under President CLEVELAND's first Administration, after careful examination estimated that Japan, China and Eastern Asia would, with the completion of the Nicaragua Canal, furnish a market for 10,000,000 bales of Southern cotton. The last number of The Manufacturers' Record contains a letter written to the editor of that paper by Mr. HERRARD, the Japanese Consul General at New York, in which, after speaking of the great recent development of cotton manufacturing in his country, he says: "Japan now can furnish a market for 10,000,000 bales of Southern cotton."

Japan now can furnish a market for 10,000,000 bales of Southern cotton.

LOSS OF LIFE.

Disastrous Fire Breaks Out in Minneapolis, Minn.

A Portion of the Ruins Fall, Crushing Several Firemen.

Six Men Taken Out Dead and One Other Friday Morning Five Others Were Missing—The Property Loss Will Amount to About $50,000.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 28.—At 11 o'clock Thursday night the most disastrous fire in the city, in point of loss of life since the Tribune fire of 1859, broke out in the immense five-story building at 240 and 242 First avenue south, occupied by McDonald Bros., wholesale grocery.

The first alarm was turned in at 11 o'clock, and was shortly followed by a second and third alarm, and a general call for the entire department. The blaze started in the rear of the upper stories, soon communicated itself to the front of the building and then burst forth from the roof. In half an hour the roof gave way, and two minutes later a part of the side wall, crushing beneath it a group of firemen in the alleyway. Six were taken out dead, of which the bodies of John Egan, John Horvick and Wallace Richardson were recognized.

Among the large number of injured were Ed Thielon, John Gray and Capt. Caldwell, and other bodies are supposed to be still in the ruins. The loss will be about $50,000.

Thielon, who was injured, died on the way to the hospital. There are still five firemen missing at 1 o'clock Friday morning. They are under a mass of debris in the fatal alley.

A GHOSTLY SCENE

At the Execution of Wife Murderer McDonough in the Ohio Penitentiary, COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—The penitentiary annex was a scene of horror Thursday night. Michael McDonough, the wife murderer, preceded by the priest, stepped upon the trap at 12:05. The straps were at once adjusted.

The fall of the drop was followed by a gust of blood that spurted from the neck of the hanging man, and flowed down over his clothing in a torrent, falling in a pool at his feet. Drs. Rowles and Jones who grasped the swaying figure, and counted the pulsations of heart and pulse, were soon as bloody as butchers in the shambles.

The spectators were horror-stricken, and many turned sick. There was a fear in the mind of everyone that the rope would cut its way through the neck, and drop the headless corpse at their feet. Without motion or any sort of muscular convulsion, the body swung there until Dr. Rowles lifted a face, showing pale through the blood upon it and said:

"He is dead, 12:15." It took but 11½ minutes for him to die, but every moment was an age to those who watched the hooded figure and heard the drip of the blood upon the stone floor.

When the body was lowered it was found that the knot had slipped to the back of the head, all the weight being supported by a seven-foot drop upon the throat at the right of the nose. The rope had sunk into the back of the head, the jugular vein and the large blood vessels at the side of the neck. The throat was cut from ear to ear.

AGED LADY

Attacked and Maltreated by a Brutal Tramp at Akron, O., June 28.—Mrs. Christina Seager, 60, a respected lady, was accosted by a tramp Thursday morning at her home on Upson street, who demanded a nickel. When she refused he followed her into the house, and seized her, brutally choked her, and attempted to assault her.

Mrs. Seager's screams attracted the attention of neighbors who rushed in and captured the man. At the police station he gave his name as James Cox, aged 45.

Mrs. Seager has been unable to speak since being choked.

Dr. Dennison's Clothes Sold. COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—Upon a magistrate's judgment for $12.40, the clothing of Dr. Allen Dennison, a son of Ohio's late governor, and one of the best known young society men of Columbus, was sold at an unsatisfactory sale on the public streets Thursday. Only twenty-one dollars was realized.

Named After McKinley. COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—The Smith family, republican, continues to increase. Gov. McKinley has received a letter from Charles H. Smith, of Philadelphia, in which he says that he has named triplets, William McKinley Smith, Governor McKinley Smith and Provident McKinley Smith.

Silver Service Committee. CINCINNATI, June 28.—Mr. Herbert, secretary of the navy, has informed Mayor Caldwell that the cruiser Cincinnati will be at the Brooklyn navy yard from July 15 to July 18, and this would be a suitable time to present the silver service. This will be done.

Found $5,000 in a Suit. FAYETTE, Mo., June 28.—In an old skirt belonging to the late Mrs. Augusta Keller of Lexington, Mo., who died at the home of her niece, Mrs. I. Keller, of this city, on the evening of June 25, members of the family have found $5,000 in greenbacks.

Direct Inheritance Tax Law Void. COLUMBUS, June 28.—The supreme court Thursday morning declared the hard direct inheritance tax law to be unconstitutional. The case came up from the case of the estate of the Duckworth estate. Judge Minshall dissented.

A Kansas Saloon War. PANSOW, Kan., June 28.—A war of extermination has been commenced on whisky shops here by Mayor Stevens, and there is not a joint running.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATS

Complete the Nomination of their State Street and Adjourn. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 28.—The democratic convention was called to order at 10 o'clock Thursday morning without prayer, and the work of choosing the other candidates was begun.

Wm. H. Gardner, of Harding; John C. Herndon, of Jefferson; W. C. Kendall, of Morgan, and R. C. Ford, of Clay county, were placed in nomination for state treasurer.

The first ballot resulted: Gardner, 286; Ford, 270; Herndon, 172; Kendall, 91; R. C. Kenton, of Robertson, 58. Kenton's name was withdrawn before the vote was announced.

Has the Worst Fire in Over Thirty Years.

Assistance Was Brought From Oakland and Alameda.

An Explosion of Four Kegs of Powder scattered the Embers and fired many buildings, including the city hall.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The worst fire San Francisco has had in over thirty years started shortly before 6 o'clock Thursday night in the rear of the San Francisco Public Works, located at Fifth and Harrison streets.

Before the department reached the ground the flames were sweeping through a number of frame buildings on Fourth street, which backed into the box factory and leaped across the street to the Southern hay barns. A second alarm was turned in only to be followed by the third and fourth in rapid succession. Chief Sullivan was one of the first to reach the scene, and realized the danger at a glance. Before one-half the department had connected their lines it was seen the fire was entirely beyond control. It was telegraphed across the bay to Oakland and Alameda for assistance.

The sister cities quickly responded. Two engines and a pump were located along the water front and used as pumps to supply water from the bay. The Southern Pacific and other lines of hose were connected and did good service in bringing salt water to supply the fast weakening fresh-water mains. A strong wind was blowing from the west and fanned the flames across the broad streets, sweeping everything in their path. Shortly after the second alarm, a puff of smoke and heavy explosion shook the city. Four kegs of powder stored in one of the big warehouses of the Southern Pacific had blown up.

Heavy embers were hurled through the air for blocks. These landed on the frame buildings for a distance, and in a short time the flames were practically hemmed in. For a time it looked as though the fire would be got under control. The wind gradually died down, but the suction of the now roaring acres of inflammable material continued to carry embers three and four feet long through the air. Shortly after 7 o'clock the wind suddenly changed to the east and drove the flames back over the burning area. The fire was accepted, and the wind journeyed to a nearby forest to have it out.

Both men the weapons chosen, and the fight which ensued was a terrible one. Both men were strong and wielded the sticks with dexterity, and the fight was a close one. Torrick managed to strike Paoli on his right arm, partially disabling him, but the duel continued. With his wounded arm, Paoli was no match for his opponent, and in a short time received a blow on the head which rendered him senseless on the ground. He is lying.
